Dear General Donovan:

STATOTHR

After receiving your letter of September 6th concerning [REDACTED] the matter was brought to the attention of those concerned. It was indicated that there was still considerable interest in securing [REDACTED] services.

STATOTHR

As you know, however, the processing of cases for the Agency does consume a considerable amount of time. It is suggested that you may wish to advise [REDACTED] he should contact those people with whom he has been in touch, notifying them of his personal plans.

STATOTHR

Sincerely yours,

25X1A
